STONYHURST NEWSLETTER

From the Principal

Dear Parents,

Welcome to the July edition of the Stonyhurst International School newsletter. Our team has once again had a busy month preparing for the opening of the school in September 2022. Although we continue to face challenges along with all of you, we remain confident that we will open as planned next September.

Education Reimagined

In my previous newsletter articles, I have written about the challenges faced by educators, students and parents in the current climate, particularly with regards to switching to online learning. Schools around the world have been forced to close for face-to-face learning, often at short notice, with school leaders and teachers having to quickly adapt their educational provision.

Carpe Diem

It has been two months since the nationwide lockdown was imposed in June. Lives seem to have been put on hold for an indefinite period of time. Some of us are still struggling to adjust to this unusual situation and some are feeling isolated, overwhelmed, demotivated or even depressed. As each of us is impacted by the current pandemic, we enter a space where we can reflect deeply and find meaning in this moment.
