STONYHURST
NEWSLETTER

From the Principal

Dear Parents,

I would like to welcome you to the January edition of the Stonyhurst International School newsletter. Our team has had a busy month as we continue to prepare for our opening. We are now moving into the preoperational phase which involves final academic policy documentation, procurement of academic resources and the recruitment of our teaching, administrative and ancillary staff.

We have now recruited 16 of our initial staff of 24 expatriate teachers and we are currently interviewing for our final 8 positions. In February we begin recruitment for our local academic staff along with administrative and ancillary staff.

Financial Literacy

When asked what is the best thing about Chinese New Year, (almost all) children will unanimously say 'Ang Pows', monetary gift given in red envelopes. The red colour of the envelope symbolises good luck and is a symbol to ward off evil spirits. During Chinese New Year, Ang Pows are typically given by the married to the unmarried, most of whom are children. Ang Pows are also gifted when a person is visiting as a gesture of kindness for visiting.
