STONYHURST
NEWSLETTER

From the Principal

Dear Parents,

Welcome to the February edition of the Stonyhurst International School newsletter. Over the past month we have continued to work towards our opening in September this year. The recruitment process for academic staff is ongoing and we have now appointed all but two of our expatriate academic faculty. We are now in the process of advertising for our local staff including teaching assistants and laboratory technicians.

Introducing the Head of Pastoral

Carmen Fitzpatrick

Get to know her

We would like to introduce and warmly welcome Carmen Fitzpatrick, our school's Head of Pastoral. Carmen is currently working remotely for Stonyhurst International School from her native home in South Australia; she is growing in excitement for her transition to Penang in March 2022.

3 Biggest Wishes Every Parent Has For Their Children

This month's article is slightly sentimental and something I think will resonate with many parents, regardless of the stage of parenting you are currently in. As a mother of three children aged 6 to 17, I sometimes wish there is a guidebook; Parenting 101, which would prevent me from making mile-long mistakes thus far in raising them.
